

THE PALACE HOTEL
BROKEN HILL

Welcome

Please see Chalkboard for Specials.

The Palace Hotel was built in 1889, originally as a Coffee Palace and has a long and colourful history. It is recognised on the National Historic Sites and NSW State Heritage Register.

Many of its colourful murals were painted by indigenous artist - Gordon Wayne. They were completed well before the hotels starring role in the iconic film - "Priscilla Queen of the Desert"

The hotel currently holds Australia's ONLY ALL YEAR... Two Up licence which we generally run on a Friday Night!

The Palace is also the home of the fantastic
- THE BROKEN HEEL FESTIVAL~ held annually in September each year...
Celebrating the cinematic release of "Priscilla Queen of the Desert"
